If you love Stags Leap District wines and love Cafe Momentum, you'll want to attend their crazy good September 26 wine event in Dallas

If you're a Napa cabernet wine lover, you undoubtedly know Stags Leap District wines from wineries such as Steltzner Vineyards, Chimney Rock Winery, Cliff Lede Vineyards, Clos Du Val, Pine Ridge Vineyards and Shafer Vineyards. Who doesn't? They're all members of the Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association.

Today, the organization announced they're coming to Dallas' Cafe Momentum on September 26 with truckloads of their wines to showcase at an event called "House of Cab Dallas."

Organizers have two big events planned for House of Cab, both at Trinity Groves.

"At Saint Rocco's restaurant, a handful of guests will be seated for a vintner-moderated blind library tasting of 13 Stags Leap District designated Cabernet Sauvignons from 1992-2010," writes a spokesman for the event. "At 3015, also at Trinity Groves, guests will have the only 'Sneak Preview' tasting outside of Napa for the upcoming 2014 Stags Leap District Appellation Collection release and can meet vintners. Hors d'oeuvres will be provided by 3015 and Cafe Momentum with proceeds benefiting Cafe Momentum, whose mission supports at-risk youth with culinary, job and life-skill training as well as continued mentoring and support to foster successful re-entry into the community."

"We are thrilled to bring our House of Cab experience to our Texas-based Cabernet fans," said Remi Cohen, Vice President and General Manager at Cliff Lede Vineyards and President of the Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association in a prepared statement. "Last year we hosted an invite-only House of Cab event in San Francisco and it was a huge success. We are excited to open this event to the public for the first time so that they too can enjoy world-class Cabernets in a setting that's usually only open to industry insiders."
