Stags Leap District – Appellation Collection 2011

Stags Leap District is known for producing some of the best Cabernets found anywhere in the world. The district has announced the Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association (SLDWA) Appellation Collection 2011.

The Appellation Collection is the only offering in the U.S. comprised entirely of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon from a single appellation.

If you are a wine collector, then this very limited edition wine case collection would make for a nice addition. The collection will be limited to only 200 cases and will be available from October 15th through December 15th, 2011.

Wines from Stags Leap District are known and respected for their balance, and lush, velvet texture. Their 2007 vintage wine is being touted as the best in years. Many of the SLDWA wines from this critically acclaimed vintage have scored in the high 90's.

The 2007 Appellation Collection includes one Cabernet Sauvignon from each of the following Stags Leap District Winegrowers' member wineries: Baldacci Family Vineyards, Chimney Rock Winery, Cliff Lede Vineyards, Clos Du Val, Hartwell Vineyards, Ilesley Vineyards, Lindstrom Wines, Malk Family Vineyards, Pine Ridge Vineyards, Regusci Winery, Robinson Family Vineyards, Shafer Vineyards, Silverado Vineyards, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Stags' Leap Winery, Steltzner Vineyards, Taylor Family Vineyards and Terlato Family Vineyards.

The Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association Appellation Collection 2011 would make the perfect holiday gift or anytime of the year.

The Appellation Collection 2011 is affordably priced for the true luxury connoisseur. You can purchase the entire Cabernet wine collection consisting of 18 SLDWA bottles for $1,450.00.

SLDW is the only U.S. appellation authorized to sell wine directly to consumers, and can ship anywhere in the country that can receive wine by mail.
