Making Travel Plans Around Cabernet Sauvignon for 2014

February 1, 2014

Stags Leap District “Vineyard to Vintner” Celebration: Napa, CA – April 25 to 27, 2014

This 3-day Vineyard to Vintner Celebration offers intimate opportunities to taste the appellation’s world-class Cabernet Sauvignons while mingling with the winery owners and vintners. Events include dinners, open houses (many at wineries that are not usually open to the public), and a panel discussion on what has made this region so distinctive over the past 25 years. On Friday night, winery owners and vintners are selecting their most cherished library wines for intimate dining experiences hosted at four different wineries: Baldacci Family Vineyards, Chimney Rock Winery, Clos Du Val, and Pine Ridge Vineyards. A Grand Finale Brunch on Sunday at Silverado Vineyards (with food prepared by the Michelin-started Meadowood Resort) features a sneak preview of the District’s upcoming Appellation Collection of 17 world-class Cabernet Sauvignons (to be released Fall 2014).

Stags Leap District is the birthplace of world-class American Cabernet Sauvignon and is the only appellation to have a wine featured in the Smithsonian National Museum of History. In addition to the wineries above, other Stags Leap District Winegrowers members include Cliff Lede Vineyards, Hartwell Vineyards, Isley Vineyards, Lindstrom Wines, Malk Family Vineyards, Odette Estate, Regusci Winery, Robinson Family Vineyards, Shafer Vineyards, Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars, Stags’ Leap Winery, Steltzner Vineyards, Taylor Family Vineyards, and Terlato

Family Vineyards. Tickets for the 2014 Vineyard to Vintner event go on sale February 14.
