Limited Edition 2007 Stags Leap Collection Features 18 of its Best Cabernets

Throw a World-Class Cabernet Party with the Ultimate Wine-Lovers Collection

The Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association (SLDWA) celebrates the 15th annual release of its limited-edition Appellation Collection this month. The Appellation Collection is the only offering in the U.S. comprised entirely of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon from a single appellation. Each of the Association's 18 distinguished member wineries is represented by one bottle from a single vintage, with this year's Collection featuring Cabernet from 2007. The vintage is being touted as the very best in years, making it a perfect wine cellar addition, holiday gift, or a brilliant way to spark a lively holiday party. This unique Collection of eighteen Cabernets, limited to 200 cases, will be available from October through December 15th, 2011.

The 2007 Appellation Collection includes one Cabernet Sauvignon from each of the following Stags Leap District Winegrowers' member wineries: Baldacci Family Vineyards, Chimney Rock Winery, Cliff Lede Vineyards, Clos Du Val, Hartwell Vineyards, Ilsley Vineyards, Lindstrom Wines, Malk Family Vineyards, Pine Ridge Vineyards, Regusci Winery, Robinson Family Vineyards, Shafer Vineyards, Silverado Vineyards, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Stags' Leap Winery, Steltzner Vineyards, Taylor Family Vineyards and Terlato Family Vineyards.

Appellation Collection is $1,450.00 per case. 7.75% tax applies to California sales and various states by law. The Stags Leap District Winegrowers Association is the exclusive retailer of the Appellation Collection, the only collection of Cabernet Sauvignon released by an American Viticultural Association or appellation.

Consumers interested in purchasing the collection may order online at www.stagsleapdistrict.com or for additional information, contact the Association's Executive Director Nancy Bialek at (707) 255-1720.
